Old business

What is the status of:

- The committee's suggestion concerning toilet height, adding vertical grab bars at men's urinal, relocation of the hand dryer and different pavers at raised platform location on walkway path at the Stephanie Tubbs-Jones Transit Center were implemented.
- "Bridge Plate" information is being or will be distributed on the Red line in the next few weeks and will be one of the topics in November's "Rider Digest".
- A date for a site visit of the Paratransit scheduling office? (Hilda)
- A date for a site visit of a Functional Testing Center? (Hilda)
- Final suggestions are due next meeting for our mission statement.
- The committee requests that the next FTA auditor be a guest speaker at our committee meeting. If needed, we will change our monthly meeting date to accommodate the auditor's schedule. (FB-W)

New business

Committee wants to review Puritas Redline Station drawings at November 15th. meeting. (Maribeth Feke)

The committee reviewed our current list of concerns. It has been given Erica Arnold, Felicia Brooks-Williams and Hilda Perez to track progress. It was suggested that's dates should be included of when question was presented and when answered. The list will be revised to reflect dates.

Upon review of the Stephen Tubbs-Jones transit station it was notice that a handrail stop short of level ground and creates a tripping hazard. It is suggested that the handrail be extended to the closest bollard.

Does "customer service" telephone number roll over to dispatch or transit police?

Mike Hargrove: What is the "no-show" guild-lines for trips going home?
