

Resolution No. 2005- 23

EXPRESSING CONGRATULATIONS TO DAVID N. GOSS
UPON HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE
GREATER CLEVELAND PARTNERSHIP
AND BEST WISHES FOR HIS FUTURE ENDEAVORS

WHEREAS, David N. Goss was the Senior Director, Transportation & Infrastructure for the Greater Cleveland Partnership and managed a regional development/transportation program that identified, prioritized and facilitated strategic regional infrastructure investments that supported Northeast Ohio's physical development agent.

WHEREAS, David N. Goss directed the Build Up Greater Cleveland program, which is a public-private partnership that supports Greater Cleveland economic competitiveness and quality of life by maintaining and enhancing its public works infrastructure: road, bridge, public transportation, water, sewer and port facilities.

WHEREAS, prior to his involvement with the Greater Cleveland Partnership, David N. Goss served as the Vice President, Economic Development for the Gateway Economic Development Corporation, the not-for-profit entity responsible for the construction of Jacobs Field and the Gund Arena. He was responsible for managing Gateway's economic development program and was Program Manager for two parking garages, the Gateway site and Gateway Transportation Management Program.

WHEREAS, David N. Goss has also served as the Executive Director of CLINITEC, INC., a wholly-owned, for-profit subsidiary of the Cleveland Clinic Foundation. He managed the Cleveland Clinic's real estate interests, identified and pursued new health-care business opportunities, and provided general management for the Clinic's for-profit ventures and technology transfer programs.

WHEREAS, David N. Goss has eleven years of management experience in the public transit industry, which includes being the Assistant General Manager of the Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority and Director of Marketing, Denver Regional Transportation District. He was an original member of the Transportation Review Advisory Council of the Ohio Department of Transportation.

WHEREAS, David N. Goss is a former Shaker Heights Councilman and a Leadership Cleveland graduate. He is active in the Urban Land Institute (ULI), where he serves as a member of its Public/Private Partnership Council and was recently elected as a Fellow in the American Society of Civil Engineers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of the Greater Cleveland Regional Transit Authority, Cuyahoga County, Ohio:

Section 1. That it is hereby appropriate that David N. Goss be recognized as a distinguished member of the Greater Cleveland community.

Section 2. That the members of the Board of Trustees express their gratitude to David N. Goss for his diligence in the performance of his responsibilities to the needs of this Authority and the Northeastern Ohio area.

Section 3. That the Board of Trustees offers its best wishes to David N. Goss and its hopes that he will enjoy many years of success in his future endeavors.

Section 4. That this resolution shall become effective immediately upon its adoption.

Adopted: March 15, 2005
